

South Africa Sets Up Giant SLAVE CAMPS FOR BLACKS!

Mr. Muhammad

Islam's Reply To A Judge

By Elijah Muhammad

On November 8, 1963, according to the CHICAGO TRIBUNE newspaper, Federal Judge F. Ryan Duffy ruled that the Black Muslim "sect" is not a religion, but is rather racist, and has for its objective the overthrow of the white race. He further charged the believers of Islam inside prison walls as having an impressive history of inciting riots and violence.

I ask the Judge Duffy to prove his charges. This is not true. In 1943, I was sent to the Federal Penitentiary in Milan, Michigan, for nothing other than to be kept out

Millions Face New Horrors

By Charles P. Howard

(UN and Foreign Correspondent)

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

While the United Nations passes resolutions of "condemnation," Nazi-white South Africa is establishing giant slave camps for blacks with a program of genocide surpassing that planned by Hitler for the Jews.

The South African government has already set up the first of its concentration camp "Bantustans," to consist of barren, dilapidated areas into which millions of black South Africans will be driven like cattle and out of which none will be allowed to leave without written permission from the white masters.

THESE slave-state black communities are the latest attempt of South Africa's white leaders to halt the surge of destiny. Their goal

Persecution in Rochester

Catholics, Protestants, Jews Protest 4th Trial!

ROCHESTER, N.Y.—Jewish, Catholic and Protestant religious leaders, shocked at the wholesale and relentless persecution of innocent Muslims, here have demanded that the District Attorney dismiss the charges and discontinue their prosecution.

Plainly aware that what is happening to Muslims today may happen to others tomorrow, leaders of the Catholic Interracial Council, the Jewish Community Council Department and Rochester Area Council of Churches in an unprecedented letter strongly condemned the upcoming "fourth trial" of the same innocent Muslims which three previous juries had refused to convict.

"This continued prosecution is SO unusual," the leaders declared in an open letter to District Attorney John C. Little Jr. "that you

THREE OF THE 15 innocent Rochester Muslims who face a fantastic 4th "trial" on charges growing out of an attempt by armed policemen to invade their religious meeting. From left: Minister Robert JX; Brother Herbert X, and Captain John BX.

... were able to cite from your over 20 years of experience in the Monroe County District Attorney's office only one case which would be precedent for such a third trial. That case involved first degree murder."

The Muslims case grew out of an attempt by police to invade their religious meeting last January, presumably looking for "a man with a gun."

"This apparently unprecedented indictment to make these defendants stand trial ... for the same offense, obviously does not arise out of the seriousness of the incident," the leaders said.

"We find nothing unique about this case other than the fact that the defendants are Negroes" and that they were members of a different religious group.

The declaration, signed by Nathaniel J. Hurst, M.D. for the Catholics, Rabbi Philip S. Bernstein for the Jewish Community and Mrs. Harper Sibley, chairman of the Protestant group, brought strong denials from the prosecutors' office here, however, directly upon the heels of this protest, the assistant district attorney, Leon N. Armer, charged with "re-trying" the innocent Muslims, turned in his resignation, reportedly because he did not want to go through the "fourth-round" farce.

Meanwhile the NAACP's Rochester branch and the Monroe County Human Relations Commission entered the struggle to free the Muslims and repeatedly blasted the motive for the prosecution.

Loftus C. Carson, executive director of the Human Relations Commission, said in his letter that the "unusual efforts by the district attorney in this case, which involves Negro members of an unorthodox religious movement, appear to be based upon other considerations than usually prevail in crimes of similar degree."

Declaring the prosecution of the case "almost unique in this community, and is certainly unprecedented in a charge of this nature," Carson's letter observed that "such action tends to confirm the belief of a sizeable segment of our community that justice is administered unequally."

The local NAACP charged that the Muslims are being tried a fourth time "not so much for the offense they allegedly committed as for the unorthodoxy of their religious beliefs."

A Better President Than JFK?

THOUGH TWO STATES, New Hampshire and West Virginia, have already ruled that he cannot run as an independent in their primaries, Negro Attorney Paul Zuber of New York said he has no intention of cancelling plans to run for President of the United States. Atty. Zuber, who has led successful fights against school segregation in New Rochelle, N.Y., and Englewood, N.J., and who has another school fight pending in a Chicago court, said he will use his campaign as a forum to air the complaints of Negroes, and to educate both the Democratic and Republican parties on civil rights.

The fourth trial is based on a new indictment, which named two additional Muslim defendants and a new charge of "unlawful assembly," a misdemeanor.

ACTION AGAINST discrimination in Philadelphia led by NAACP Director Cecil B. Moore recently took the form of a mock burial of Jim Crow, but only a few weeks later riots broke out as frustrated and hemmed-in black citizens protested ever-present police brutality and persecution of Negroes. Philadelphia, with a Negro population of more than 600,000, has some of the most sordid segregation in the nation.

Who Will Stop South Africa's Slaughter of Black Women and Children?

What Would Happen If These Were Black Men Flogging White Women?

THOUGH SOUTH AFRICA'S bestial racial policies have been "under discussion" in the United Nations since 1946, the World Organization to date has done nothing to halt such inhuman brutality as shown in this picture, made in 1959, when South Africa's "Nazi" cops beat and maimed African women in Durban for staging a protest demonstration. South Africa's latest move is the establishment of "Bantustans" for blacks—thus partitioning the country off into "slave" and "slave-master" areas, and still the world does nothing.

Giant Slave Camps for Blacks is Latest Horror

is to rearrange the whole of South Africa into a clearly defined patchwork of slave and slave-master areas by the year 2000.

This is their formula for the destruction of black South Africans:

The Bantus (people) in these "tribal areas" will be forced to enter white areas as laborers or as servants; but their status will be beneath that of the lowest white migrant.

Each Bantu will be told by the government where he can live and work. Tens of thousands of African families will be cruelly uprooted and driven to Bantustans from South African cities like herds of cattle.

EVENTUALLY, half of the country's African population will be forced into these enclaves. The other half, doing "slave labor" in white areas, will be subject to being shipped to Bantustans at any time.

The great riches of the country — farms in Transvaal, the financial wealth of Johannesburg, the gold fields of Orange Free State; the industrial areas of Durban and Port Elizabeth — will be restricted to whites only.

Only those Bantus whom the government deems "essential" to South Africa's economy will be allowed in white areas. And they will be squatters, and nothing more, said one government official. Thus the white areas only will constitute South Africa as far as government is concerned.

THE FIRST Bantustan will be Transkei, a tribal reserve of about 16,000 square miles on the Southeast coast. Last week the South African government held an "election" that gives Transkei's 1.5 million Bantu residents "limited internal self-government" as of Dec. 11, with a territorial parliament. The main control, will be held, of course, by whites.

The territory will be a Bantu economic and political dependency partly administered by the Africans under "white guardianship." But white South Africa will have veto powers over any and all legislation.

Africans will be able to sit in forums but will not be able to sit in shops across the street, which are for whites only. In Umtata, the capital of the territory, the African ministers will be forced to stay out of town if they wish to remain overnight. Umtata's hotels will not accommodate them.

Whites will control all of Transkei's known mineral deposits and all of its industries, its towns and its potential harbor.

WHITE SOUTH AFRICA

will control prisons, police, defense, foreign affairs, internal security and the sale of ammunition and arms, in addition to customs, currency, immigration, communications, mails, roads, harbors and railroads.

White South African police will patrol the black areas.

Every "bill" passed by the African Bantustan legislative assembly must be sent to South Africa's State-President for his approval. The Bantu assembly cannot change Transkei's Constitution nor can it vote the chief minister and his government out of office unless white South Africa agrees.

This is white South Africa's solution to the "race" problem.

Angolan Conditions For Portugal Talks

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo—The Angolan Revolutionary Government—in Exile disclosed that it would not enter into discussions with Portuguese representatives until Portugal recognizes the right of Angolan Africans to self-determination and independence.

Added to these conditions were stipulations that Portuguese troops be withdrawn from Angolan soil and a general amnesty declared for all Africans.

Approximately 45 per cent of the population is less than 15 years of age, while six per cent is 60 years and older.

South Africa's Strangulation Of A People!

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika—A ring of racist, South African steel menaces defenseless Basutoland, the tiny British protectorate which is struggling for its freedom and independence while continuing its precarious existence in the heart of one of the world's last strongholds of absolute white supremacy.

Every 19 miles along the Basutoland border stands a South African military police post—its modern, NATO-supplied equipment poised to deal instant death and destruction.

Day and night, week-in-and-week-out, a South African police helicopter spies over the land.

FOR SOUTH AFRICA, even with all of its military might, is afraid of little Basutoland.

Premier Hendrik F. Verwoerd knows that within Basutoland borders are thousands of freedom seeking black South Africans who were driven there by the Nazi-like white supremacist policies of the South African government.

Thus the South African Republic has virtually declared a state of war on Basutoland, tive, Koenyama S. Chakela, petitioned the Addis Ababa Summit Conference of African Chiefs of State, to:

"View this situation with all seriousness and to make a categorical declaration that any aggression on these three countries by South Africa be considered an aggression on the entire African continent..." and to "pledge all forms of support to the people of Basutoland, Bechuanaland and Swaziland, who have hanging ominously above their heads the danger of being attacked by their heavily armed neighbor..."

But over London conference tables, the British have rejected a motion put to the legislative council that Basutoland have an army of her own. And Britain meanwhile continues to sell arms and ammunition to the South African government.

THE GOVERNMENT of South Africa has increased its threats that if these three countries continue to give asylum to political refugees from South Africa it will retaliate.

And British government officials in the protectorates—who are citizens of South Africa—are conducting a scare campaign to sabotage the Basutoland freedom movement. In addition, South African police continue to enter all three protectorates to ar-

The Basutoland Congress Party publication "Makatolle" International declares:

"To kill a man is murder. But to plan strangulation of a whole people in this manner is an unforgivable crime. Yet these are the hard facts of the Basutoland situation..."

THE SUDAN and Nigeria have joined in almost unanimous condemnation of South Africa's new policy of establishing "bantustans," described as all-black concentration camps with black puppet leaders under the direction of white South Africans. rest people, with the tacit approval of the British administration.

Basutoland freedom fighters assert that Basutoland, Bechuanaland and Swaziland are in eminent danger of being swallowed up by South Africa if "British protection" continues; that by delaying Basutoland independence, Britain is protecting its financial interests in South Africa; that Britain does not protect any of these protectorates from South African aggression because the aggressor on the three countries can only be Britain herself—through South Africa.

WHAT ARE the great financial interests at stake in Basutoland?

This embattled country, whose entire border circumference measures only 350 miles, is rich in bauxite and iron, among other minerals.

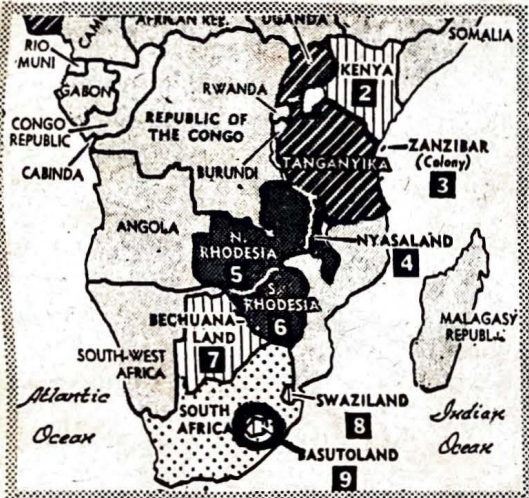

Cheap labor from Basutoland is used to work South African gold and coal mines.

The British financier in South Africa is the king on the chessboard while the Basutoland people are only the pawns.

These financiers, aided and comforted by the British government, have given the Anglo-South African pirates the means to continue to loot our country, "sucking the blood of our people without mercy," declare Basutoland fighters for freedom.

"We call on the Nation to rally more than ever behind its true leadership and be vigilantly on guard against the agents of colonialism and neo-colonialism let loose by their masters to cripple the people's revolutionary struggle."

which seeks to attain her independence in 1964. In South African circles this blatant military power play, which also threatens the nearby British protectorates of Bechuanaland and Swaziland, is known simply as "The Squeeze."

How UN Views New Slave Camps in South Africa

The United Nations Special Committee on the Apartheid policies of the government of South Africa has strongly rejected the white-supremacy "separation" solution of that government and in an official document has exposed the following fallacies of the so called "Bantustan" program:

● These moves are engineered by a Government in which the African people have no voice and are aimed at the separation of the races and the denial of rights to the African population in six-sevenths of the country.

● The "Bantustans" were not demanded by Africans but are being imposed against their wishes. The leaders of the African people are imprisoned or silenced, entry into reserves by whites is controlled by permits, and under Proclamation 400, the Transkeians are denied freedom of assembly and speech.

● The scheme aims at strengthening tribalism and utilizing the tribal system against African aspirations for equality.

● The "National units" made up of scattered reserves, are not economically viable. They do not provide a minimum standard of living even for the existing population of less than four million. They have few known mineral resources and are almost devoid of industries. The economies depend largely on the export of labor to the "white" areas at the rate of over half a million migrant laborers a year.

● The creation of "Bantustans" may, therefore, be regarded as designed to reinforce white supremacy in the country by strengthening the position of tribal chiefs, dividing the African people through the offer of opportunities for a limited number of Africans, and deceiving public opinion.

The UN Special Committee noted that such terms as segregation and discrimination can hardly describe the humiliation and oppression to which millions of people, who constitute a large majority of the population of the country, have been subjected by the policies of the South African government.

It ripped "the consequence of a racist ideology enshrined as State policy, and implemented by force against the majority of the people of the country, in violation of the obligations of the South African Government under the United Nations charter.

It noted: "The Special Committee rejects as unfounded the claim of the Government of South Africa that the choice in South Africa is between white domination and the end of the white community in the country. It feels that the white community cannot ensure its survival by seeking perpetual domination over the non-whites and that efforts to that end can only lead to catastrophic consequences."

Negroes Ask $250,000 Damages in Job Fight

The Negroes are also seeking restraining orders to stop the companies from continuing their present policies and practices of discrimination and to require the union to represent Negroes in processing grievances.

Nigerian Scholar Warns:

Real African Revolution Still Waits in the Wings

By Obiajunwa Wali
(Evanston, Ill.)

Perhaps it is a little too late in the day to talk of an African revolution. To many people, the revolution for national independence in Africa has reached its climax, and the only possible revolution now, may be in the economic sphere.

But this is a misunderstanding of the actual situation, for underneath the present calm and quiet, and under what appears in many cases a steady economic development with the guidance of indigenous leaders, bitter controversies are still going on which may well explode beyond the control of Dewey's concept of organized intelligence.

THE CRUCIAL question is not the success of the political revolution which we have all witnessed in Africa for the past two or more decades, but the quality of the result of this fervent crusade.

There is little doubt that the present finished product is in many ways, not quite the same as the expected end-result, and only a few would now argue that there was no miscarriage somewhere in the process of this revolution.

The whole drive for African nationalism started with an ideology of social justice, individual freedom, an equitable distribution of wealth, and a restoration within limits of practical achievement of indigenous African culture.

The idea of a privileged ruling class based on a capitalist economy was particularly abjured, for on it rested all the evils, humiliations, and cruelties of foreign domination and colonialism.

NEARLY THE whole of Africa is now free from foreign rule, and now technically independent, but the achievement of the ideal society of our dream and struggle, falls very much short of the original expectations.

What makes the situation potentially dangerous is that while there is a growing awareness of this fact, most of the new rulers in Africa are busy devising one method or another to perpetuate themselves in power, and thus frustrate forever the aims and hopes of our revolution.

It is in this connection that the role of the new African intellectual calls for a reappraisal.

There is little doubt that a number of African intellectuals played some leading roles in the nationalist movements of the past few decades, and that since independence, many more have been in the vanguard of national reconstruction either by way of direct political leadership, or in the upper echelon of the civil service organizations, or in the staffing of the new universities and similar institutions of higher learning.

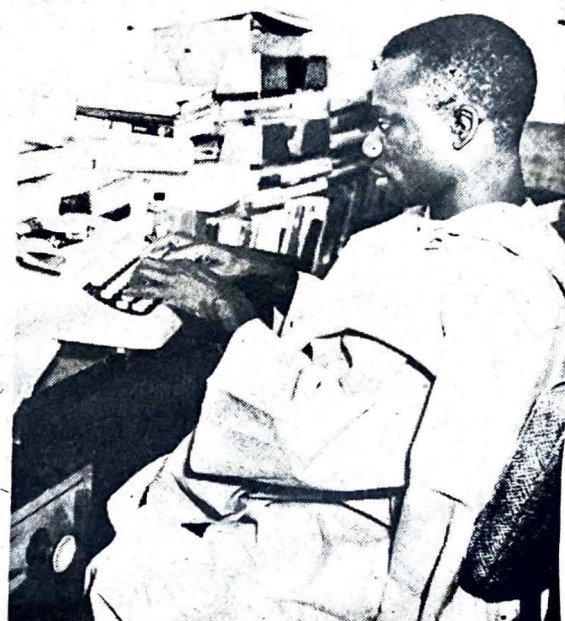

IT IS unfortunate at the same time, that most of these intellectuals have acquiesced beyond ordinary level in what has already been described as the miscarriage of our revolution.

In many ways, they have failed to offer that impartial and objective criticism, which constitutes the health of new nations, in the midst of hazards from older nations and competing ideologies who are bent on exploiting inexperience, and possibly perpetuate their domination by more subtle and indirect means.

Socialism as a political and economic concept for instance, must of necessity have local or national variations. But the stress of some African intellectuals today is not just on this self-evident truth, but on some form of a mythical African socialism which is different and independent of the basic theories of classical socialism.

Their aim is to confuse further the basic aims of our revolution, and divert and isolate the dynamics of African socialism from the main stream of socialist thinking and solidarity.

THE OPPORTUNITY for the African intellectuals today is to abandon compromise on fundamental issues for the full realization of our revolution, and the salvaging of our cultural identity after centuries of oppression and degradation. It is only in this way that the African continent can be saved from the turmoils of violent changes, which are becoming increasingly obvious.

Tanganyika Leader

Says Negro Must Join With Africa

BOSTON — Tanganyika's Minister of Justice, Amri Abedi, told Muhammad Speaks here last week that in his opinion "The American Negro should affiliate himself with Africa . . ."

Appointed by Julius Nyerere, Prime Minister of Tanganyika, Mr. Abedi, a Muslim, was the first African mayor of Tanganyika's capital city of Dar-es-Salaam.

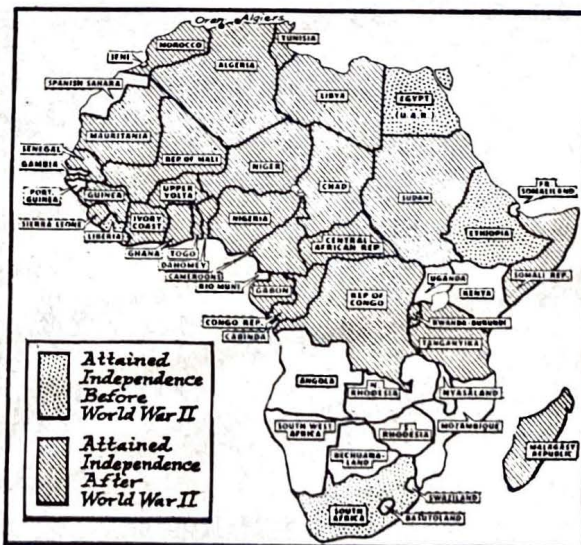

"We consider the fate that has befallen our brothers in America as being our own," Abedi said.

"We consider the suffering meted out to American Negroes to be our own. Africa will always speak out against injustice wherever it is committed but here (in America) we are more concerned."

In summing up his early life as a Muslim and studying the Qur-an since the age of five, Abedi said: "If you are a friend of Allah you will be the most secure person in the whole world; and not only this—you will also be secure."

Amri Abedi

THOUGH THE FIRST STAGES of freedom have been won in many parts of Africa, as indicated on the map above, the real revolution, fostered by economic turmoil and change, could explode at any time, writes Nigeria scholar Obiajunwa Wali.

Dr. Leo's Travels

How Islam Gave Meaning to Journey Around The World

By Dr. Leo P. McCallum

To those of you who have followed this column as it carried us around the world, I know that it was evident to you that such a trip was a truly exciting experience.

Yet the few things that I tried to bring to you didn't just isn't true.

It becomes crystal clear to the traveler with any real knowledge of the black man's true history that the so-called American Negro definitely has a close tie with a culture and history that extends beyond the cotton fields of Georgia.

IT WOULD be foolish to say there is no poverty or illiteracy in Africa or the East but it is just as foolish to say that Africa and the East are areas of poverty. In Egypt I saw wonderful homes which were not occu-pled by the very rich. In all areas of Africa I visited I found a determination to succeed and to become a free and independent people.

I took a special fancy to Kenya. The soil is rich and the climate just perfect all of the time. The people there are friendly and courteous and the feel of Uhuru (Independence, which is to take place on December 12) was in the air.

Nigeria impressed me as a center of learning for there, colleges of all types are found and the Nigerian in the street always reminded you of someone you know.

IN PAKISTAN, I found the world of Islam as it is usually taught and thought of—complete with the Muslim woman covered from head to toe. I had no difficulty feeling completely at home there, even though I immediately recognized that Islam there does not have quite the fire and zeal as we find it here.

THE GREATNESS of ancient Egypt remains symbolized by this Pharonic statue in Kharnak Temple in Luxor, Egypt, just an hour's flight from Cairo. Ancient Egyptians, described by earlier historians as "black and woolly-haired," erected the ladder which enabled other civilizations to climb. Some idea of the size of the monument can be seen in comparison to Sister Harriett Muhammad, who stands at base of huge figure.

IN CONCLUSION, let me state that the only thing I missed during my travels was my family and the life-giving message of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. For were it not for the identity-giving doctrine of this small-statured but powerful black man my trip would have been but a shadow of what it turned out to be.

I would undoubtedly followed the tourist lanes of the white man into Europe and the like—into countries and areas which are neither mine nor occupied by my own kind.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad has long taught that if we wish to return to our own kind, we would be welcomed with open arms—if we returned thinking and acting as black people and not as black people with white minds.

AFTER returning home, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad expressed no surprise at all when I spoke to him of the wonderful manner in which I was treated and received.

He informed me that this was nothing as compared to the brotherhood, freedom, justice and equality that the so-called American Negroes could enjoy among themselves if they but come to Islam and to Allah. — The end.

CORE Rips N.Y. 'Police Brutality'

NEW YORK—The Brooklyn branch of the Congress of Racial Equality ripped New York City policemen as "Bull Connors," and charged them with brutality in breaking up two recent CORE demonstrations in Manhattan, injuring nine members of the civil rights organization.

In a letter to Mayor Wagner and Police Commissioner Murphy, the group accused the police of "deliberately" injuring the CORE members.

Isiah Brunson, chairman, and Arnold Goldwag, community relations director of Brooklyn CORE, who signed the letter, declared that while their members picketed racist Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama on Nov. 7 here and President Kennedy on Nov. 8, police officers "waded into the picket lines on horseback, wielding nightsticks and stomping on defenseless people."

"Fed up" with police actions, CORE made four demands and requested an audience with Wagner and Murphy.

White Historian Finds: Mad Frankenstein Runs Mississippi!

(Special To Muhammad Speaks)

ASHVILLE, N.C.—Whoever wonders what happened to Frankenstein's monster need wonder no longer. According to a white University of Mississippi professor who spent 28 years doing research in Frankenstein's habitat, they let the monster run Mississippi.

In the opinion of Dr. James W. Silver, finally retired from that so-called "University" after years attempting to wash brains most in need of "brainwashing," Mississippi operates as though it is being directed by "some malicious Frankenstein."

Free for the first time in three decades to speak his mind about events in Mississippi, Dr. Silver spoke candidly before the Southern Historical Association on the theme: "Mississippi: The Closed Society."

"THE ALL-PERVADING doctrine then and now has been white supremacy," he said.

Dr. Silver said Mississippi was not only seceding from the United States but had seceded from "world history."

Mississippi's power structure has worked to make our society "obedient to an official philosophy almost identical with the pro-slavery philosophy," he pointed out.

The famous historian said that the textbooks proposed by the White Citizens' Councils were designed to keep the people of Mississippi unable even to imagine any other life than pure white supremacy.

HE QUOTED from one of

The Mississippi Free Press, pointing out how Mississippi boldly continues to glorify its white supremacist "closed society" through the use of "loaded" text books, quoted the following passage from the revised edition of "Our Mississippi" by Pearl Vivian Guyton:

"In 1866, a secret organization, the Ku Klux Klan, was founded in Tennessee. The purpose of the Klan was the protection of weak, innocent, and defenseless people, especially the widows and orphans of the Confederate soldiers."

Commenting editorially on this quotation, lifted from a sixth grade text book used throughout the State of Mississippi, the Free Press asserted: "To say it is merely slanted is inadequate—such a distortion is clearly criminal."

the books which read: "White men built America so they could make the rules. George Washington was a brave and honest white man. . . . The white man has always been kind to the Negro."

Dr. Silver then ripped the attempt by University officials to blame the Federal government for the riot surrounding the admission of James Meredith.

The University, he said, released "singularly inaccurate" stories blaming "trigger-happy, amateurish, incompetent" U.S. marshals. This report, the historian said, was "abundantly clear fraud."

The most striking illustration of the loss of academic freedom occurred after the riots when 50 professors and instructors resigned their posts rather than accept the growing influence of the White Citizens Council.

DR. SILVER characterized white Mississippians as not even conservative but "negatives." They grow up being "against most things other men at least have the pleasure of arguing about."

In fact, Mississippi's "secession" not only covers withdrawal from America or democracy, he said, it is secession "from the whole of humanity."

Once Upon A Time

FROM HIS EXPRESSION, Former General Edwin Walker was enjoying himself as he was arrested after leading bloody rioting at the University of Mississippi in which two persons were killed.

When UN 'Invaded' Mississippi...

JACKSON, Miss. — Once upon a time the big, bad United Nations invaded Oxford, Miss., with 26,000 troops and forced the pure, lily-white University to admit a nigger named James Meredith while at the same time a brave, patriotic white U.S. General named Edwin Walker, hearing of the infamous invasion, came down to see what the UN was doing invading the sovereign state of Mississippi . . . and in so doing was nabbed and illogically charged with "insurrection."

This fairy-like tale was told here to high-ranking members of the (White) Citizens Councils in their annual convention by a former United States General of the Army who only recently held life and death power over thousands of American soldiers.

General Walker, who led white supremacy riots which took two lives but did not stop James Meredith's admittance, told the Citizens Council Convention:

"28,000 troops in Mississippi were here in the use of UN forces to such extent against a sovereign state — the state of Mississippi. It will go down in history as the biggest mistake Kennedy ever made."

. . . Bob Kennedy is a liability to the nation and Jack Kennedy is a liability to the free world. . .

"The Kennedys have liquidated the government of the United States. It no longer exists. The nation has no government. . . . The Kennedys are not the government of the United States. They are the temporary administrators of government. I personally hope that their temporary tour is about over."

"This includes the ex-President Eisenhower also, who did much to liquidate the government of the United States of America. He now, they say, I believe, carries the title of general. That, to me, is utterly fantastic, too."

The general was the luncheon speaker at the White Citizens confab for which each member paid $25 registration fee to attend and hear those billed as the nation's greatest "white" leaders.

In Vicksburg, the 'Sick' City—

They Live Off the Negroes But Won't Defend Them

The following article, signed by James A. Walts, appeared in the November 9, 1963 edition of the Mississippi Free Press, militant, Jackson, Miss., newspaper which praised Walts for the courage and honesty he displayed "by speaking out the way he has."

"There are many sorry things, but you have never seen them until you have seen the Negroes in this city. There are a few Negroes here that are trying to carry out a belief, a few who want to see their race become free and to see their kids grow up with as much chance as any other kid in the U.S.

"Now, one would think that if a Negro lived only off other Negroes he wouldn't have to fear. Preachers, doctors, business men, undertakers, grocers and independent farmers — all these Negroes live off the Negro one way or another.

"Well, I want to set the record straight. Only a few of these people here in Vicksburg even like the word Freedom."

"Government workers, teachers and a few others can't come out front because of regulations pertaining to their jobs, but they don't even let you know they are anywhere at all.

"Those who can't come out front could lend courage and support to the few that are out in front. A man can fight if he knows someone is pulling for him and knows that he does not fight alone."

"But here in Vicksburg it is so shameful. When you meet a Negro you are afraid to speak about Freedom. you must figure out first whose side he is on.

"Oh, there are a few here that are trying to do something towards betterment of their race, but they are only being talked about as fools and their businesses are suffering because those Negroes that don't want Freedom are talking against those that are trying. This makes matters rough when you are fighting two enemies,

(Washington, D.C.)

In early 1962, Brother Irving X Long filed a suit against the Penal Institution for maltreatment. The suit never reached the courts.

Brother Irving X was whisked away to an Ohio prison. Two months later he was transferred to Texas, and then to Indiana. In each prison he received skimpy medical attention.

It was not until December of 1962, at Springfield, Mo., that a biopsy was taken and the evidence of cancer acknowledged. He was granted a medical parole to become effective in January 1963. But he was not released until April, 1963.

ONCE OUT of prison Brother Irving X went directly to Muhammad's Mosque No. 4, in Washington, D.C. However, his condition prevented him attending regularly.

His mother, who was not a Muslim, worked to help him realize his desire of becoming a Muslim. She assisted him on his rare visits to the Mosque and conferred with Mosque officials concerning his health and well being.

As the days passed and his condition grew worse, Irving X Long's determination to forestall death and become a registered Muslim increased. In September, 1963, he was taken to D.C. General Hospital. These were his last days.

ON THE 18TH and 19th, as his breathing faltered, Irving fought coma after coma. Once he was pronounced dead, but somehow revived himself.

Then, on the morning of the 20th, he dismissed his mother with a reassuring glance, asking her to return at 8:30 a.m. His mother, Mrs. Jessie Chinn, said of this moment: "He seemed to have known that he had become a registered Muslim and that the long struggle was over." He died before her return.

A few hours later Mrs. Chinn received a crescent bearing letter from Honorable Elijah Muhammad acknowledging Brother Irving X as a qualified Muslim.

Of her son and the Honorable Elijah Muhammad Mrs. Chinn said: "The Honorable Elijah Muhammad gave to Irving what he gave to me—strength, endurance, courage and patience."

BROTHER Irving X Long is also survived by his father, George Long; a brother, Stanley, and two sisters.

His mother, who has now become a Muslim said:

"It is not that Irving would have desired this. This is truly my desire and my decision."

Islam Leads Christianity In Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa—Islam is far out in front of Christianity in winning converts among African people, a Methodist minister said here.

The Rev. John T. Watson, Methodist minister from London and the general secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, declared that for every convert to Christianity from "Africa's uncommitted millions, there are two converts to Islam."

THE PARENTS of Ronald TX Stokes, who was killed by a policeman's bullet when Los Angeles cops shot down seven unarmed Muslims in front of Mosque, tell what Islam has done for them at Philadelphia religious meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Stokes testified that they had found comfort and the strength to carry on in the face of the needless tragedy which struck at their family without warning.

How Islam Gave Me Strength And Revealed Life's Truths

By Brother William D.X.
(Chicago, Illinois)

For nine years now I have been worshiping in the religion of Islam. During that entire period I have yet to have a bad day.

But before I embraced the Nation of Islam I awoke every day with a headache caused by all the wrong I was doing. Drinking and nightlife were among my bad habits.

Although I am 75 years of age, Islam has made me feel 30 years younger. Islam has given me strength and my strength has never failed me. In fact, it has been rejuvenated through the teachings of the Messenger of Allah.

NOW, I would not give up Islam as taught by the Messenger of Allah for all the wealth of America. I am thankful to him for teaching me the knowledge, wisdom and understanding of myself and of others. I bear witness with the Messenger that it is of extreme importance for one to have a thorough knowledge of himself and of others.

Before hearing Mr. Muhammad's message I had no idea that I belonged to a great Nation of people—numbering into the billions I had always looked with interest at the Chinese, Japanese and the brown people of the islands—and of course I knew the black people of Africa were my brothers. But until I heard the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad I did not realize that these people were also my kith and kin.

But by far the greatest revelation to me was when I learned the truth about the people with whom I had been associated all of my life; the ones I had worked with, socialized with and knew intimately.

I THOUGHT these people were also my brothers and sisters. I am speaking now of the caucasian people.

My association with white people was intimate before I had a real knowledge of them. I had always worked and socialized with them in every facet of their society—from the executive down to the man on the street.

I was the only so-called Negro working in a white-owned, white patronized barber shop for a period of 47 years. I was totally accepted among them. In fact, for all practical purposes I was a white man in a black skin. I fraternized with them in every way.

My awakening began when another so-called Negro who was doing some work in this all-white neighborhood was unable to find a restaurant in the community that would serve him food. He came into the barber shop and asked me where he could get a bite to eat and I told him I would get some food for him.

(In the concluding installment, Brother William DX describes how the teachings of the Messenger of Allah gave him true knowledge of white America and at the same time awakened him to a new and satisfying formula for living.)

If You're Injured— Will Hospitals Let You Die On Streets?

The great Negro singer, Bessie Smith, bled to death because white hospital after white hospital refused even to give her emergency treatment when she was injured in an automobile accident.

And for years, the death of Bessie Smith has been reenacted many times in every city in America by Negroes forced to die quietly when hospital treatment might have saved their lives. Big white hospitals, for decades,

In the Midwest, one young black leader of this critical struggle is Dr. Charles Lee Williams, one of the founders of the famous Williams Clinic and one of the Negro physicians who brought suit against Chicago hospitals for the ruthless white supremacy practices which have virtually outlawed both the Negro doctor and his patients from most of the city's hospitals.

At least 26 major hospitals in this city, with a population of 1,000,000 Negroes, accept no Negro doctors on their staffs and often have been charged with refusing Negro patients even for emergency treatment.

ALTHOUGH the city has a "code" which says no hospital shall discriminate against any "person on account of race, color, creed, national origin or ancestry," officials here, just as in other areas, simply ignore the code:

Dr. Williams comments: "All hospitals that use land granted by the city, state or government — and that are tax exempt — should be available to all the people, since our taxes are used to furnish land and since we bear the burden of these tax exempt institutions. We should either be allowed use of their full facilities or our taxes should be rebated . . .

"These institutions also receive research grants from the government. They use this money to hire only white physicians and technicians.

Hospital Employees Union, AFL-CIO, New York, talks with hospital worker Ed Brown and family. Local 1199 has led the long and successful fight to win a decent standard of living for New York hospital employees.

have been making a major contribution toward helping Negroes maintain the high death rate.

THUS THE life and death struggle raging unpublicized across the country against the vicious practice of excluding and segregating Negroes from most hospitals may have more portent upon the high death rate among Negroes than even the civil rights struggle.

"We should not be forced to pay for the functions of institutions which bar us from these functions."

Further, the young medic points out:

"Hospitals are about the fourth largest business in the country, and for the most part are community property. Yet the Negro doctor is confined to hospitals which are poor and unaffiliated with any university."

The Chicago physician pointed out that there were only 19 Negro appointments to Chicago hospitals from 1955 through 1960. Fourteen of these appointments represented the first Negroes to receive them. There was one in 1955; two each in 1956 and 1957 and three each in 1958, 59 and 60.

SINCE 1961 there have been 32 hospitals with Negro appointments for the first time: 13 in 1961, nine in 1962 and 10 in 1963. However, of 72 non-governmental hospitals licensed by the state, there remain 26 that have no Negro physicians on their staffs.

With only approximately 350 Negro doctors in the Chicago area, and with many doors closed to Negro medical people in research and other allied fields of medicine, there is no incentive to attract new physicians, Dr. Williams said. Even our own children are not eager to take on medicine as a career.

If the present trends continue, it was pointed out, in another 30 years most Negro doctors in the area will have retired "and we shall be left with about 30 physicians for a Negro population of more than a million."

HOSPITAL employees too are much maligned, said Dr. Williams. They should be paid more than just starvation wages. They are doing a good job and should be unionized and adequately compensated.

"After all, as I mentioned earlier, hospitals are about the fourth largest business in the country."

White Physician Tells of

Hospital Jim Crow and a Negro Cancer Victim

SAN FRANCISCO—The ruthlessness of white supremacy in the clinical confines of a Southern county hospital, which denied a dying black man a few hours of cheer, fired a white practical nurse and harshly reprimanded a white intern who demonstrated sympathy for the doomed patient, was revealed in an article in a recent issue of The Churchman.

Written by Dr. Tom Brewer, a white physician, the article tells how hospital authorities cracked down on Joe Saunders, a 32-year-old cancer victim from Andros Island in the Bahamas; Margit Jacobsen, a practical nurse from Denmark, and Dr. R. H. Brown, young intern from Georgia.

Dr. Brewer writes that Margit, "a good nurse and a

Saunders "to accept segregation and discrimination; he just didn't understand it."

The sympathetic practical nurse got her parents interested in Saunders, who had "a huge tumor in his arm pit" and his arm had been amputated.

The Jacobsens brought Saunders "cakes and flowers and cheerful smiles. They exchanged letters with his family on Andros Island." Saunders had a wife and daughter on the island.

Saunders, with a five-hour pass, was driven to the Jacobsen home by Margit's mother. There he "had supper and coffee cakes and listened to calypso and classical music recordings." He talked with Margit, her parents and Margit's two sisters.

Intern Brown later noted on Saunders' chart that the "patient had a 4-5 hour pass today for a drive and dinner out—seems more cheerful—no nausea or vomiting . . ."

But when Margit planned a second such outing for Saunders, she was called in by the supervisor of nurses and bluntly told, "you don't take colored people into your home and 'you have to conform to the way people do things here . . . If you take him out, you'll lose your job. . . . I'll fire you!"

Margit was scolded by two other nurses and even by the hospital chaplain.

Dr. Brown, the intern, was reprimanded by the assistant hospital administrator, Dr. Brewer writes.

Dr. Brown was ordered not to "let them take him out anymore." Margit Jacobsen was fired because she refused to call off the outing.

Dr. Brewer observes that "Joe Saunders didn't get any other rides until he left in a coffin two months later."

Cites Credo Of an Atheist

By Charles H. Knapper
(Oakland, Calif.)

I discovered through reading in your "Opinions of Others" column that there is a black atheist in my own community and I feel overjoyed to know that there is at least one more.

But I take violent exception to his statement that white men do not have a conscience.

True, Christian nations have nothing but a blood-curdling history wherever they have been, but through all its years there have been white Christians, white free-thinkers and white atheists who have challenged this very hypocrisy.

WE NEGROES should reject a lot of things and make temples and churches museum relics.

But by lumping all whites together as "evil," we are only making our frustrations worse and embedding into our minds ignorance worse than the ones we are escaping.

I am a member of the Humanist Fellowship of Atheists who believe the following:

1. Man is a part of nature and has developed in it. He was not "created" for a special "purpose" and there are no chosen people who are born "better" than others.

2. All men should have equal chance to use their ability.

3. The answer to world problems can only be found by men working together.

4. Science, properly used, can free mankind from misery, poverty and even disease.

5. The time to live is now, the place to live is here and to be happy is to help make others happy too.

The way in which we treat our fellowman is far more important than saying prayers, repeating creeds or going to church.

Hails Program of Rights, Self Help

By HANK BROWN
(New York, N.Y.)

Let me first of all congratulate your great paper on the works that it is doing throughout the black and also the white community.

My hat is off to Mr. Elijah Muhammad and the Muslims for the battle that is being waged and won by them. It makes me feel proud to know that there is a black leader who has removed the fear from black people and given them the courage to stand up and take their place under the sun, in a righteous manner.

I have had the opportunity to see some of my own friends who were really in such bad shape that all hope was given up on them. The church couldn't straighten them out, nor could the social, welfare or other agencies. But, after they became Muslims, I saw a miraculous change come over them. Now, they are useful citizens and distinguished persons in their communities.

I also want to clear up many persons on what I have seen accomplished by the Muslims program. From what I have noticed the Muslims do not demonstrate for civil rights or other integration desires. Some of the Negro leaders criticize them for this.

In my studies of the Muslims I have never got the impression that they wanted civil rights or integration. My understanding is that they want HUMAN RIGHTS AND SEPARATION!

Again, I am under the impression that the Muslims program is designed to work on the individual, give him race pride, fill him with dignity, make him a clean and upright person. Give him the mental strength to stop smoking, drinking alcoholic beverages, stop committing evil acts, namely fornication, adultery, etc.

Other People's Opinions

IN THE OPINION of this demonstrator at a recent National Baptist Convention in Chicago, it's time to think of "here" rather than the "hereafter." A growing number of black leaders of Christian churches are turning towards the program of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, the great Messenger of Allah, with emphasis upon winning a better life for their people not in heaven, but on earth.

Minnesotans Laud Messenger Want Slave Labor Pay Center

By James Louis and Arlis Hudson
(Minneapolis, Minn.)

In regard to the "Great Debate" write-up of China's Mao Tse-tung and the so-called leader of the NAACP:

In what way is this organization supposed to be advancing by refusing to accept help when it is needed? We denounce such ignorance!

May God bless this paper, "Muhammad Speaks," and the Honorable Elijah Muhammad for speaking truths; as long as this is done we cannot lose. If the NAACP wishes to trust someone, why not trust God Almighty instead of the whites?

IF THE colored people want true freedom without fear of it being taken away after freedom is won, then see that this country pays us for all our slave work and for the lives they have taken from us through slavery and wartime. Then we can buy our own land.

We do not believe in guns. We do not believe in the whites' ways, which are not Godly.

If we turn from white ways with all our hearts, God will fight our battle and destroy him in our midst. Stop trusting the white man's words and promises but continue to do unto him as you wish him to do unto you.

WE HAVE nothing against the artificial white man except that he refuses to recognize the creation and the authority of God. The white man did not create anything.

What makes him "superior?" It is all in the mind.

One more thing. We do not believe that the United States is building bombs, rockets and all sorts of things for peace. There is no need for this. Just treat people right.

The truth is, if they can conquer China and Russia they will trample the dark races of the world and unite all their kind as gods. If they really want peace let them prove it to us.

WE ARE modern slaves in the so-called "Free World." The Negro people and the Indians shed blood for this country too. Why can't we have some of it?

The bottom of the bottomless pit is down South. We take pleasure in writing to this newspaper and the people associated with it.

Says All Castro Did Was Help Black Cuban Brothers

By Louis Gomez
(Washington, D.C.)

As one who was born and raised in Cuba let me express my strong disagreement with some of the views expressed in your articles on Cuba.

In the first place, I see nothing commendable in what Castro has done for the black people in Cuba. These people did not and had never done anything to deserve the top positions he has given them nor are they capable of ever making Cuba great.

WHAT CASTRO did was to bite the hand that feeds us all (the Western World) which has done so much for civilization. Everyone in Cuba knows that Castro and his brothers have more black blood in their veins than the average Black Muslim in America and in doing what he was doing he was simply looking out after his own.

It seems to me that we must not overlook the fact that Castro is a communist and that the best people in our beloved nation (regardless of our imperfections) are opposed to either communism or socialism or any other ism.

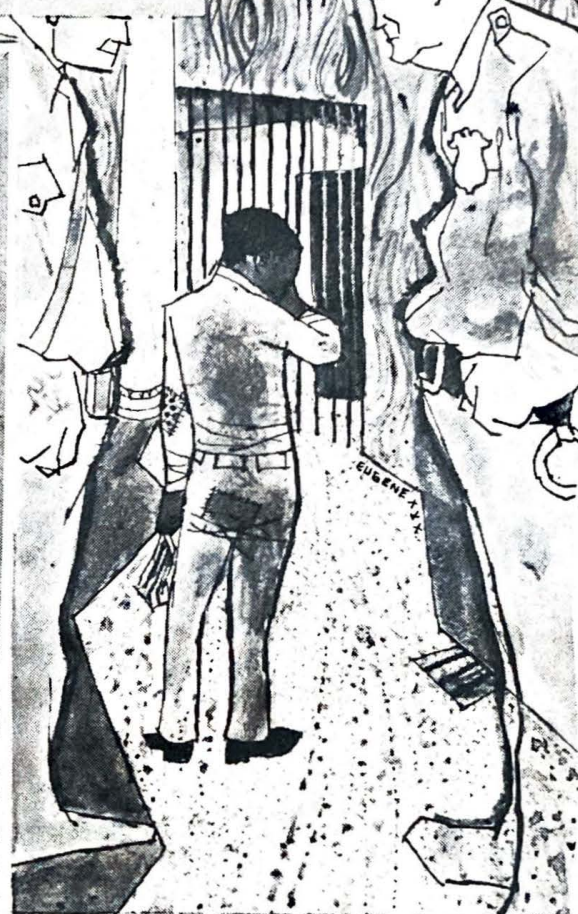

The white man may not always be right but Castro has never been "white" or "right."

A Criminologist Comments on What Happens When They Arrest A Negro Child?

Saul Alinsky

One of the world's great sociologists and criminologists, Saul Alinsky, has not been content simply to analyze, report and survey society; he is one of the few in his field who has organized action organizations to combat and change the environment responsible for the degradation of mankind. He is author of "John L. Lewis," "Reveille for Radicals," a contributor to leading scientific publications, co-founder of the famed Back of the Yards Neighborhood Council and executive director of Industrial Areas Foundation.

By Russell Burns

QUESTION: Mr. Alinsky, do statistics show the true picture in regards to crime and race?

ANSWER: I made a special study of this 18 years ago. People were always saying, "Your statistics aren't correct because the population in the prisons and particularly the reformatories, is much higher as far as Negroes are concerned than of other groups which preceded them into these areas."

And this was true. The Negro population was much higher. So I started studying it to see why this is a population that is committed into institutions.

QUESTION: What did your studies reveal about the high percentage of Negroes in prisons and reformatories?

ANSWER: The reason for it was this:

When a white boy came into court, let's say he had committed X offense. Now the Negro and the white kid are brought into court. The white kid is brought up before the judge and there is always a charitable agency of some kind there; or some kind of social work group, or a boy's club or this or that.

They are all saying to the judge that if this boy is released on probation we are prepared to put him in this club and this or that kind of program.

So the judge would say, "Released on probation." Now that's one white boy that did not get into an institution.

When the Negro boy came up before that judge five minutes later, the probation officer may very well have had a probation recommendation. The judge will look around and ask, "Who is with this boy?" Well, he is lucky if he had an auntie in court.

In many cases where the judge would want to place him on probation, he finds no one to offer the boy a helping hand. So the judge would finally lean back and say, "St. Charles." (a reformatory). Now this is where you start to see the trickiness of statistics, as to how or why.

QUESTION: Can you place this example on a broader scale?

ANSWER: I know a white neighborhood up here that gets a hundred cases of delinquency a year. Of the hundred cases about 95 are kids that are there for minor offenses. The other five are serious offenses—stealing a car, stealing tires or something.

So the white kids come into the police station during the course of a year. In dealing with the 95, the police department calls the parent; the parents will come; somebody from the Boy's Club or a neighborhood house or something. Then they will bawl out the parents.

And then the Boy's Club will say, "Well, okay—we will take him to our club."

And then the parents will say, "We are going to watch him more carefully, etc." Then the Boy's Club will say, "It's no point in making out an arrest slip on him. Why give him any kind of a record or anything? Because after all you know, we'll take care of him."

Okay. So the records over there on the shelf show five kids—five kids with serious offenses.

When the Negro kids come to the station, the first thing they do is make out an arrest slip on them. So bingo—you have a hundred here.

So you have 20 times more Negro kids listed in the records over here than you have white kids over in the other district even though the numbers are exactly the same and the offenses are exactly the same.

QUESTION: Why are there more cases of police brutality in slum areas than in other areas?

ANSWER: Suppose I'm driving 45 miles-per-hour in a 35 mile zone. I'm driving a 1964 Continental with a four-number license plate.

Don't you think one cop would treat me differently than another cop would the next day if I'm driving an eight-year-old car and it's banged around a little bit and has an ordinary license plate?

It's not just a case of color in that situation because Italians always complain.

QUESTION: Then police brutality occurs most in the poorer neighborhoods?

ANSWER: Let's face it.

The poor always get picked on.

The poor are the "have nots" and they get stepped on. The unfortunate thing is that when some of the "have nots" start off to lead a fight for justice they get to be "haves" and then they sort of tie in with the other side. A lot of your people have done that as you well know.

Day Negroes Should Mark

By Clarence J. Gentry (Sacramento, Calif.)

To all black people living within the territorial limits of the United States of America and many other parts of the world, BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, September 15, 1963, should be no less significant than was PEARL HARBOR, December 7, 1941, to the general American population.

The beastly and dastardly acts perpetrated against unsuspecting, guiltless and premature victims by persons best described as half canine and half reptile (of the pit viper variety that strike without warning) must remain indelibly imprinted within our minds and become a permanent historical record.

There are no punitive measures that can be taken, or acts of penitence, contrition or remorse that can be offered to mitigate or blot out this premeditated crime, with malice aforethought, against humanity and the Divinity.

We must face reality. The plight of black people in the United States is getting worse, rather than better.

MUSLIM PRAYER SERVICE

A Warning To The American So-Called Negroes

"Relations of Muslims with Enemies"

"O you who believe, take not the Jews and the Christians for friends. They are friends of each other. And whoever amongst you takes them for friends he is indeed one of them. Surely Allah guides not the unjust people." Holy Qur-an 5:51

"Muslims shall be made Victorious"

"To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. And whether you manifest what is in your minds or hide it, Allah will call you to account according to it. So He forgives whom He pleases and chastises whom He pleases. And Allah is Possessor of power over all things. Holy Qur-an 2:284

"The Messenger believes in what has been revealed to him from his Lord, and (so do) the believers. They all believe in Allah and His angels and His Book and His messengers. We make no difference between any of His messengers. And they say: We hear and obey; our Lord, Thy forgiveness (do we crave), and to Thee is the eventual course. Holy Qur-an 2:285

"Allah imposes not on any soul a duty beyond its scope. For it is that which it earns (of good) and against it that which it works (of evil). Our Lord, punish us not if we forget or make a mistake. Our Lord, do not lay on us a burden as Thou didst lay on those before us.

Our Lord, impose not on us (afflictions) which we have not the strength to bear. And pardon us! And grant us protection! And have mercy on us! Thou art our Patron, so grant us victory over the disbelieving people." Holy Qur-an 2:286

Note: The latter verse (2:286) is a prayer; let us recite it very often.

Quotations

FROM the Messenger

"WHEN YOU EDUCATE A MAN AND TEACH HIM WHAT YOU KNOW, THEN HE DESIRES THAT YOU RECOGNIZE HIM AS YOUR EQUAL. AND THAT IS WHAT IS FAST COMING TO YOU IN AMERICA. YOU HAVE GIVEN US AN EDUCATION AND NOW WE WANT JUST WHAT YOU HAVE. WE WANT A COUNTRY FOR OUR PEOPLE; WE WANT THE SAME THINGS THAT GO FOR A CIVILIZATION AS YOU HAVE. THAT IS ALL WE ARE ASKING TODAY, IS THAT PARTICULAR CHANCE."

We are a people numbering 20 million in America and have worked and slaved for America for 400 years, only to be denied justice even by the Federal Government. We have fought in every war this country has been involved in. The so-called Negroes' blood has been shed on his own soil, and foreign soil, only today to be denied justice in the government that he has fought and bled and died for.

JUSTICE IS RIGHT, JUSTICE IS RIGHTEOUSNESS. JUSTICE IS OPPOSED TO WRONG. JUSTICE IS THE NATURE OF GOD. IT IS THE LAW THAT DISTINGUISHED RIGHT FROM WRONG. JUSTICE IS THE WEAPON THAT GOD, HIMSELF, WILL USE TO BRING JUDGMENT AND JUSTICE TO THE WORLD ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT. JUSTICE IS THE PURPOSE OF THE COMING OF GOD TO JUDGE: TO GIVE JUSTICE TO THOSE WHO ARE DEPRIVED OF JUSTICE.

MY LIFE, by Sir Ahmadu Bello, The Sardauna of Sokoto. Cambridge University Press, New York: 1962 $5.50.

(ANP) — A REGAL man who was knighted for his service to Nigeria and to the British Commonwealth of Nations, Sir Ahmadu Bello is one of the most powerful and significant politicians in Nigeria. He is Premier of the Northern Region, largest of the three regions in Nigeria, and president of the largest and ruling political party, the Northern Peoples Congress.

MY LIFE, primarily an autobiography, is also the story of Nigeria's move toward independence; a colorful picture of a little known part of West Africa and an important political document as well.

THIS AUTOBIOGRAPHY completes the trilogy of books by great Nigerian statesmen to be published by Cambridge University Press. ZIK, a selection from the speeches of Governor-General Nnamdi Azikiwe, and AWO, the autobiography of Chief Obafemi Awolowo, are included in the trilogy.

Letters To The Editor

Have read your article called the "Women in Islam" which I found very interesting and uplifting. It is the first article printed to uplift black women in North America. And it is the best of its kind. Black women need an upliftment of this sort due to their condition.

On my coffee break this afternoon in downtown Boston, I noticed a sight to behold. A very attractive young lady which attracted the attention of passersby. She was modestly dressed in a grey suit which was ankle-length and was not the least bit form fitting. Of course she was a Muslim and a follower of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

Who else teaches his women followers to dress in such a modest manner? While others dress in tight form fitting garments, knee high and faces plastered with makeup, these women dress in a manner as not to entice lustful men.

To the women of my race: Get behind this man. Who cares if they (the lusty ones) laugh in fear, they know God and Muhammad are here.

"WELL, YOU WANTED INTEGRATION!"

Islam's Reply To Federal Judge

of the public from teaching my people the truth during the war between America, Germany, and Japan. This war came to a halt in 1945 when America dropped an atomic bomb in Japan. And the following year in August, 1946, I was released on what the institution called "good time" for being a model prisoner who was obedient to the prison rules and laws.

In the year 1942-1943, according to reports, there were nearly a hundred of my followers sentenced to prison terms of from one to five years for refusing to take part in the war between America, Japan and Germany because of our peaceful stand and the principle belief and practice in Islam, which is peace.

The very dominate idea in Islam is the making of peace and not war; our refusing to go armed is our proof that we want peace. We felt that we had no right to take part in a war with non-believers of Islam who have always denied us justice and equal right; and if we were going to be examples of peace and righteousness (as Allah has chosen us to be), we felt we had no right to join hands with the murderers of people, or to help murder those who have done us no wrong. What would justify such actions? Let the truth answer.

Judge Duffy listened to an appeal made by a new convert to Islam who is serving a 200-year sentence, charged with slaying two Chicago men in 1951. (He should be given credit for his desire to be a Muslim). The appeal was asking for the freedom of obtaining publications and reading material distributed by the Black Muslims, including the Holy Qur-an.

Judge Duffy referred to the Muslim's Holy Qur-an as a "sect's book" while the Holy Qur-an is universally recognized as Divinely-revealed scriptures.

According to the rules and laws of the prison—before we Muslims began to be imprisoned—all religious believers, regardless to their religion and God, were permitted access to their books and visits by their religious teachers. This freedom is written in the Constitution for everyone; but when we were imprisoned that freedom was denied us and us alone. And this is the freedom that is guaranteed in the American Constitution. A person is free to criticize anyone he wants, even if it is the Congress or President of the U.S.A.

But while the Constitution of America was being written, our fathers were slaves, and we, today, are merely free slaves who do not have the knowledge of self and have not registered up with Allah and His religion, the Nation of Islam.

When I was admitted into Cook County jail in Chicago, Illinois, I wanted the Holy Qur-an, too; but I was denied having it, which is not a "sect's Bible." It is the religious scriptures and guide for the Muslim world; recognized universally as the last revelation given to the world. And the Holy Qur-an has been the Holy book and scripture for all Muslims for the past 1,381 years.

We are not an organization; we are a world. I use the same Holy Qur-an that all Muslims use; the book that is universally recognized as being 100 percent true. And such scholar and U.S. Judge as F. Ryan Duffy calls it a "sect's book."

One of the officers, who was a very fine man, tried in vain to persuade the warden in the Cook County jail to allow me to have my Holy Qur-an as all other religious believers were receiving theirs in prison. But this same officer came back and told me that the warden said "that is what we put them in prison for, and to let us read the Bible, ha, ha, ha."

They do not even want to hear the truth of the Bible; for there is no paradise in it for them. According to their own Bible that they wish all black people to read, when carefully understood, Genesis to Revelation, teaches that they were an appointed people for hell fire from the beginning of their creation. I am ready to prove this with any scholar or scientist. They hated Judge Reuther for his interpretation of the Bible which condemned the church and its father, the Pope of Rome, the Roman Catholic.

The CHICAGO TRIBUNE also quoted Judge Duffy as saying that a social study showed that the Black Muslim movement, despite its pretext of a religious facade, is an organization that has for its objective the overthrow of the white race. But when have the so-called Negroes in America been classified as social members in the white American society; even in Christianity, not to think of social equality and human relationship?

The so-called Negroes have never been equally recognized members in anything in America as far as the white man is concerned. Not even in their prison houses are they recognized equally with the white race.

How can he or anyone put us under a social study when there is no social equality between whites and so-called Negroes? This gradually

Nyerere For World Attack On Poverty

ROME—A "planned world attack on poverty" was called for last week by President Julius Nyerere of Tanganyika in a speech before 400 delegates to the 12th session of the United Nations Food and Agriculture conference.

Such an attack must be made, said President Nyerere, to counteract the disparities between rich and poor nations brought about by a "combination of aid and free international competition."

The only alternative to such a plan, he said, "is an acceptance of economic inequality and deliberate isolationism while we build ourselves up."

The policy of isolationism, asserted the Tanganyikan leader, could be expressed through the creation of "a separate economic unit," consisting only of underdeveloped countries, with its own economic development plan and supported by its own managed credit.

brewing revolution is to reclaim our respect as human beings and equal members in the civilized society of the nations of earth. Isn't it true that this is what the fight going on in the South today is for; where poor, so-called Negroes are being beaten, shot down and bombed in even those churches that the white man permits them to have because they want to be recognized as equal members in the society or order of the American white people?

We have turned to our God, Allah, and His religion, Islam, and our own people where there is no such thing as distinction. We want to be separated from our open enemies, the slave masters' children who desire nothing more than to mistreat us.

When have we, the Muslims, ever received justice under the Constitution of America? Not one time in the courts of America; a country and people that hate the religion of Islam because it demands freedom, justice and equality for black people.

The greatest racists that have ever lived on our Planet Earth are the white people. We only ask for the privilege of being ourselves, seeking to restore brotherly love and respect among our divided, robbed and spoiled people by the American whites.

The U.S. Judge, Duffy, has now openly spoken his hatred for any justice coming to us who have turned to do righteousness, which is

Minister Cites 50 for Work on Philly U. of Islam

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Becoming a Muslim is the high-point in the life of Dr. Lonnie X Cross, Minister of Muhammad's Mosque No. 4, Washington, D.C., who spoke recently at the University of Islam in Philadelphia.

Minister Lonnie, noted educator and holder of a number of academic degrees, including the doctorate in mathematics, told his audience here that "although I hold some of the white man's highest degrees, the highest degree I ever received was when I was recognized as a member of Muhammad's Mosque of Islam."

Minister Lonnie conferred awards upon 50 Brothers and Sisters in recognition of their outstanding contributions toward the establishing of the University of Islam here.

Meanwhile, Minister Marvin Omar of Muhammad's Mosque No. 12 here, lectured in Washington, D.C., on the

African's Bitter Experience

Hit by Jim Crow Status of Negro

WASHINGTON—An African leader, who wanted to see for himself how Negro citizens are treated in the United States, not only saw but was given the traditional "Negro treatment" in Atlanta, Ga.

Abu B. Magba Kamara, politician and secretary general of the Veterans Organization in Sierra Leone and a delegate from that country to the United Nations, was insulted and forced to leave a restaurant in Georgia's capital city, along with three companions.

Kamara, touring the nation on a partial leadership grant from the U.S. State Department, was accompanied by his white State Department escort, James Hancock, and two Atlanta Negroes, Dr. Roy C. Bell, dentist, with whom Kamara visited, and Ralph Moore, a Morehouse College student.

Dr. Bell said that the four were set upon by the owner and waitress almost from the time they entered.

The group's presence so enraged owner Leb, Bell declared, that a scuffle ensued during which Kamara was shoved by Leb. During the brief melee, Bell said Leb tried unsuccessfully to take cameras belonging to Kamara and Hancock.

One of the waitresses picked up a chair and was about to strike Kamara from behind when she was stopped by the restaurant owner, who reportedly called the African visitor a "black b—" and threatened to get a gun and shoot him.

Finally, when the police arrived, Bell said they were told they would be arrested if they did not leave.

In a wire to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Bell reminded Rusk that the Prime Minister of Sierra Leone had received similar treatment on a visit to this country.

New Freedom Roles For African Women

WASHINGTON — "African women are exerting their wills with increasing vigor" in the wake of the flood of freedom and independence that has swept across the African continent. This was the declaration by G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African Affairs, speaking before the Women Lawyer's Association of Michigan.

The former Michigan governor said that African women are winning this larger role partly because of their contributions to independence and political struggles and partly because of their active leadership in efforts to raise standards in Africa's developing nations.

Quads' New Home

All She Did Was Give Birth to 4 Babies—in ½ Hour

THE SMILING WOMAN standing behind sign (wearing fur stole) is the Chicago Negro mother of quadruplets, Mrs. Delores Harris, the first in the city to bear four identical baby girls. A large crowd gathered to witness ground-breaking ceremonies on site where new modern home for mother and children will be built. The home-building fund originated with 17th Ward Alderman Charles Chew, Jr. (standing at left of Mrs. Harris with shovel), with the citizens of Chicago participating. A Negro insurance company already has donated a policy for the youngsters and the Joe Louis Milk Company, through George Jones, president, is supplying the Harris family with milk, to be continued over a 10-year span. A fund-raising event for the quads will be given at the Arie Crown Theater in Chicago's McCormick Place on December 9.

Sister Mae X Luster

Cites Negro In Science

The Museum of Negro History, in Chicago, last week announced the publication of its 1964 Negro History Calendar, which is devoted to the achievements of African-American men of medicine and science.

The calendar, containing 14 original drawings of distinguished scientists and biographies, exemplifies the fact that "science knows no race, color or condition. The gifts that science and invention offer are shared by all humanity."

Other features include a listing of 50 items and discoveries made by Negroes and a frame-sized portrait of the late Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois, to whom the calendar is dedicated.

The artist whose drawings are reproduced in the calendar is Bernard Goss of Chicago. The editor of the calendar is Gerard N. Lew, poet, Negro history specialist, lecturer and president of Museum of Negro History.

Lamb Roast Prepared by An Expert

Sister Mae X, clerk in the Temple No. 2 Grocery and Market, wonders why so many women pass up such a delicious meal treat as lamb roast.

Because many declare they do not know the proper way to prepare lamb, Sister Mae submits her favorite lamb recipe—Muslim Lamb Roast, an easy-to-prepare and taste-pleasing addition to the family table. This is it—

MUSLIM LAMB ROAST

4 to 5 lb. lamb shoulder
 1 medium green pepper
 1 clove of garlic
 ½ cup water
 lowery seasoning salt
 1 medium onion
 3 stems celery
 ½ cup catsup paprika
 tumeric
 black pepper

DIRECTIONS: Pre-heat oven to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. Mix water and catsup and pour into bottom of roaster. Sprinkle the roast liberally with paprika, tumeric, black pepper and lowery seasoning salt before placing it in the roaster.

Make three or four slits on top of roast and place slivers of garlic in each. Add chopped green peppers, onions and celery, sprinkling over and around roast. Cover and cook 2 to 3 hours until done.

Women in Islam

With prices constantly on the upswing, the struggle to make every budget penny count becomes increasingly important to the American housewife and mother. Muhammad Speaks therefore offers these timely tips to those who purchase the family food:

Do not buy BETTY ANN YELLOW FREESTONE CANNED PEACH HALVES, manufactured by Henderson Cold Storage, Inc., Monticello, Ga. These peaches failed to meet the standard of quality for canned peaches, due to excessive hardness, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration charged in its October 1963 report.

And choose some fish other than FROZEN HADDOCK FILLETS, packed and shipped by F. W. Bryce, Inc., Gloucester, Mass. Pollock fish have been substituted in part for haddock fillets, warns the FDA.

Cross TILGHMAN BRAND CANNED FROZEN OYSTERS, from Tilghman, Md., off your shopping list. Water was substituted in part for oysters, FDA announced.

Though you may like iced tea throughout the winter, beware of SALADA ICED TEA MIX, manufactured by Salada Foods, Inc., Little Falls, N.Y. This product, declares FDA, was misbranded because its display depicted fresh lemons and the label stated "with lemon - added," whereas it was imitation lemon powder that was added, and not fresh lemon juice, dehydrated.

CANNED TOMATOES manufactured by Ridge Canning company, Glassboro, N.J., are not up to par either. FDA charges that these tomatoes failed to meet the standard of quality for canned tomatoes due to excess peel.

—CANDY containing rodent hairs and insects and manufactured under insanitary conditions resulted in a fine of $300 for the manufacturer (SHENANDOAH CANDIES, Inc., Miami, Fla.).

Answers to

A Nervous Bride and Worried Mother

By Harriett Muhammad

DEAR HARRIETT: I'm a mother of three children and would like to do something to help my kids get a good education. Our family income is low, so I can't afford to put out much money, but I want them to have a better chance than I had.

What can I do to make them take their studies seriously? They and most of their playmates seem to be interested in just getting high enough grades to go to another class.

I sense something is wrong and would like you to give me some ideas about what could be done.

—A CONCERNED MOTHER

DEAR CONCERNED: Our people in the United States have been the victims of centuries of racial discrimination. You probably realize that many of us have a weak self-image.

You must do your part in making your children love and understand their people. Teach them to understand that they can play a great role in the betterment of their people by improving themselves. Teach them the practical side of learning.

With a good educational background, they will be better able to cope with the complex society we live in. Also, with a good educational background, they will be able to continue their studies on a college level, thus making it possible to make greater contributions to society and to earn a more substantial livelihood.

Many times teachers in the lower income neighborhoods complain that parents aren't cooperative. You must make it a point to meet your children's teachers and see what kind of cooperation is expected of you. Does your school have an active P.T.A.? If so, join it and participate in some of the projects.

Buy as many books as you can—and get a public library card from your local library and make good use of it.

Why don't you study along with the children, Mother? You, too, can benefit from more knowledge.

DEAR HARRIETT: I am 20 years old and just got married. I read your column in Muhammad Speaks and decided to write to you before I go to visit a doctor for people with sick minds.

My problem is my personality. Lately I've become a nervous wreck and it's very embarrassing to me. Whenever I get around where there are a lot of people, I get nervous and I can't hold a conversation with any of my husband's friends or people. I'm too nervous and scared to talk and this is every time I'm around people.

Please, if you can give some advice to me about how to solve this problem, I would appreciate it because soon I believe my nerves will destroy me. Maybe this is not your field. If not, please let me know, then I'll go to a doctor.—NERVOUS BRIDE.

DEAR NERVOUS: You're right. This isn't my field, so I suggest that you see a physician. Don't wait until your nerves "destroy" you. There are many people today, like you, who, due to external pressures, go through a stage of insecurity.

Since you've just gotten like this lately, some event or change may have started everything. How is your married life? Maybe you haven't adjusted to some phase as yet.

You have one foot on the road to recovery, as you realize you have a problem and want to deal with it directly. Chin up.

Comment from a Prodigy

Young Scholar Finds He's in Muslim Book

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — An 18-year-old prodigy who expects to be awarded the Master of Arts degree of Political Science next year has written the principal-director of the University of Islam in Chicago expressing his pleasure at being included in Muhammad's Children First Grade Reader.

In a letter to Mrs. Christine X Johnson, author of the recently published primer, young George Mason Miller, graduate student at the University of North Carolina here, said "It was heartwarming to see that you have included me in your 'Muhammad's Children First Grade Reader' and wished Mrs. Johnson 'continued success in educating the youth of America.'"

Though young in years, George Mason Miller has already carved a distinguished scholastic career.

AT 11, he appeared on a nationwide quiz show and won $10,000.

AT 12, he lectured in Africa.

WHEN HE was 14 he finished high school—then spent the following summer at Columbia University.

AT 17, he was graduated cum laude in History from Livingstone College.

NOW, AT 18, while others his age are taking North Carolina University's library orientation tour as entering freshmen, he is in the midst of his second year as a graduate student in Political Science and is scheduled to receive his MA in comparative government in June.

He plans to enter Yale Law School next September and study civil and constitutional law.

Possibly the youngest person ever to enter the graduate school here, Miller is highly aware of the Negroes' struggle for freedom and equality under the law."

"I think Governor Wallace of Alabama is doing what he is doing because of several political promises he made," Miller asserted.

"The views that Wallace holds serve only a small part of the population. All he is doing is denying an education to perfectly innocent children. The South can truly rise again if it realizes its resources. . . But the South cannot rise again as a racist South."

Two big occasions stand out in George's memory. One was winning $10,000 on a Bert Parks' quiz show for children from 11 to 17; the other was visiting Ghana, West Africa.

George Mason Miller when he visited Ghana at 12 years-of-age.

George met Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana "when we were both in Washington." Nkrumah invited young Miller to visit him in Ghana and George lectured before the Ghanaian Assembly and spoke in several elementary schools in the city of Accra.

But studies don't occupy all of George's time.

He is an amateur sculptor and painter and collects stamps. He also builds model airplanes and ships and is a former Boy Scout.

IN FRONT OF Kwame Nkrumah monument in Parliament Square, Accra, Miller stands with Ghanaian friends. He lectured before the Ghana Assembly while in Accra in 1957.

Inside Black Labor

Labor and the Negro

For the first time in history, the AFL-CIO has given civil rights top priority on the agenda of its national convention, held this year in New York.

Black labor leaders have long called for unions to push for equality and justice from within the labor movement and from within the communities.

With these facts in mind, Muhammad Speaks interviewed Cleveland Robinson, one of the leading Negro trade unionists in America, Secretary-treasurer of the 35,000 member District "65"—Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union, Robinson was one of the primary forces in organizing the March on Washington for Freedom and Jobs.

Named recently by Mayor Wagner to the New York City Commission on Human Relations, he granted this exclusive interview to Muhammad Speaks Correspondent Sylvester Leaks.

By Sylvester Leaks

QUESTION: Mr. Robinson, what role do you see organized labor playing in the struggle to bring about a change in America's attitude towards equality for Negroes?

ANSWER: I would say that the whole AFL-CIO is not playing the role it ought to play. There are some important exceptions; where certain unions and labor leaders are way out in front, they are doing a good job. But take for example the recent attitude of the AFL-CIO executive board in refusing to endorse the March on Washington.

The fact is that within its own house labor has not yet done the job of guaranteeing equality of opportunity in leadership. And there are still unions that bar Negroes; there are still segregated locals.

Now while Mr. Meany says that some of these segregated locals are segregated because the Negro members of these locals refuse to join the white locals, he fails to say on the other hand that these Negroes are afraid to join with the white locals because they lose their job security and their leadership and their identity.

QUESTION: What can be done about the unorganized Negro?

ANSWER: There are masses of Negroes and other minority groups in areas where there are just no unions. The labor movement is not lifting a finger to organize them. Where Negroes and Puerto Ricans are approached, and where they have faith in the unions which have approached them and where there are some people among them who know the union, you will be able to organize them quite readily. On the other hand, if you don't know them and they don't know you they are just as hard to organize as anyone else. Most of the time they are afraid that the union which approached them is nothing but racketeers and so they run from you. It is only when they know the truth that we can get to them.

QUESTION: Is there a specific reason then why the labor movement is not organizing masses of Negroes and other minority groups?

ANSWER: I must say that it is just insensitivity to this question, aside from the fact that there are some bigots up in the leadership of many of these unions.

QUESTION: What about the American system of apprenticeship?

ANSWER: I just came across some recent studies made in England and other parts of Europe on that question. Apprenticeship as such is an unknown thing there. During the youngster's early years, when he would be in high school, for example, he gets vocational training. But six months to a year of practical work makes him a journeyman. And here we have got the same jobs taking FIVE YEARS for training.

QUESTION: What role did your union, "65," play in the March on Washington? and what did the March on Washington accomplish?

ANSWER: One of the things our union did was give about $6,000. In addition, we gave more than $2,000 to get people out of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama.

The March gave the Negro a new sense of importance, dignity; a new sense of understanding of the depth of this problem. There are more Negroes, more white people too, ready to stand up and make sacrifices in the cause of human dignity than they were before the March. Many myths were dispelled—that Negroes couldn't behave—that they'd be tearing up Washington.

Georgia Undertaker Leads:

Stay Out Of Jail

AMERICUS, Ga. — Negroes here have decided that the most telling blow they can strike against white supremacy here is to stay out of jail.

In fact, a devastating boycott has been launched here against the town's jailhouse and Negroes have been urged to tone down Saturday night conflicts in order to frustrate the local police.

The jail here had reaped a whirlwind harvest of week-end fines ranging from $2,000 to $3,000, but now, under the boycott, the take has dropped to less than $500 and it's still going down.

"DON'T FORGET," announced the Sumter County Movement, "that our fines and court costs every morning are helping to pay for new police cars and extra policemen who are just there to intimidate Negroes..."

John L. Barnum, director of the Barnum Funeral Home and treasurer of the Sumter County Movement, told Muhammad Speaks, "We're telling all of our people to observe all laws and to keep out of trouble. This way the white people won't have any people to arrest."

"Before the jail boycott the weekly total of fines and bail bonds was $2,000 to $3,000 every week. Now it's down to less than $500 per week, including both Negroes and whites."

"THIS SHOWS beyond doubt that the entire black population is with us."

A few hours later, Barnum was signing bonds of $2,500 for six freedom fighters who had been beaten and held in jail here since August.

Four of the youthful prisoners were charged with trying to incite insurrection under an antiquated 1871 state insurrection law which carried a maximum penalty of death.

JOHN L. BARNUM (left) whose "jail boycott" in Americus, Ga., is proving almost 100 percent effective, and Atty. Jackson, assistant to C. B. King, counsel for the Albany Movement. Barnum is treasurer of the Sumter County Movement.

The case of the "Americus

Four" had aroused national attention and several congressmen had asked the United States Department of African Art in U.S.

DETROIT, Mich.—The local branch of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History announced the launching of a drive to raise a minimum of $50,000 to purchase African art, which will be placed in the proposed African Art Gallery, a part of the $3,000,000 south wing of the Detroit Institute of Arts building.

Naval Academy Grad

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — Wesley A. Brown was the first Negro to graduate from the U. S. Naval Academy here, June 3, 1949.

Drive!

Justice to intervene in the youths' behalf.

THE SOLICITOR general of Americus had boldly admitted that he lodged the capital charges against the four civil rights workers to deny them bail and halt protest demonstrations here.

Solicitor Stephen Face, Jr., said in a taped interview that he placed "insurrection" charges against the four—three from SNCC and one from CORE—to "deny, or ask the court to deny these defendants bond."

But a Federal Court ruling here struck down the 19th Century insurrection law and an unlawful assembly statute. Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of Atlanta, and District Court Judge Lewis R. Morgan of La Grange, Ga., ruled the insurrection and unlawful assembly statutes unconstitutional and void. A third, District Court Judge J. Robert Elliott of Columbus, Ga., in a dissenting opinion, said the injunction was unwarranted interference with state court procedure.

If upheld, the order would set a precedent for civil rights demonstrators to go directly to federal courts with complaints of excessive bond.

MEANWHILE, the 7,000 Negroes in this county of 13,000 continue to assault the barriers of unequal job opportunities; unequal police protection; segregated public facilities, including lunch counters, theaters and taxicabs.

And the Justice Department continues having trouble finding civil rights violations in a county where there are only 704 Negro voters out of a potential of 7,000.

The Klan Rolled..

IF YOU WERE a member of the Walk For Peace, this is what greeted you when you walked through Georgia—a truck load of Klansmen inching along beside you—hurling threats and insults. And when the Klan wasn't around, the local police burned your skin with electric cattle prods and beat and jailed you.

While 19 Walked For Peace

MACON, Ga. — When they walked into Griffin, Ga., the Walkers for Peace were met by red-necked Griffin cops and members of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation who seared them with electric cattle prods and beat them and herded them into jail.

Even before that, when they were just outside of Athens, Ga., members of the Quebec - Washington - Guantanamo Walk For Peace had been cruelly harassed by marauding Ku Klux Klansmen, who tried to run them down as they walked beside the highway and by vicious townspeople who assaulted them and cursed them as they passed through.

But the Walk members kept up their pace—as they have done now for more than 2,000 miles—all the way from Quebec, Canada, down American highways and roads and through American towns — distributing their leaflets to those who desired them.

HERE IN MACON, members of the Walk planned to conduct a general fast while in jail to protest the injustice of their arrests.

Twelve members of the Walk refused to cooperate with arresting officers and were carried or dragged to waiting police cars.

Additional charges of resisting arrest were placed against the 12, who stated they planned to continue their noncooperation while in jail. The Walkers are members of the Pacifist Committee for Nonviolent Action.

STANLEY O. CARROLL

Negro Artist for Freedom

NEW YORK — Noted American Negro writers and actors have formed an organization to "speak to the conscience of America" on freedom and human dignity "for all peoples everywhere."

The Association of Artists for Freedom, founded by James Baldwin, Ossie Davis, Ruby Dee, Odetta Gordon, Louis Lomax, John O. Killens, acting chairman, and Clarence B. Jones, counsel, actually was organized "out of a shocked reaction" to the Sunday morning bombing of a Birmingham church, killing four innocent children, and the fatal shooting of two others there on the same day.

A spokesman for the AAF said:

"We felt it was time for us to speak to the conscience of America and make ourselves heard on the questions of freedom and human dignity for all peoples everywhere."

The AAF is "a cultural adjunct to, but not in competition with, the existing groups fighting for civil and human rights," the spokesman pointed out. "In the main, our activities will be neither political nor legislative, but cultural."

SOME OF THE youngest followers of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, leader of the largest Muslim movement in American history, are gathered here in Philadelphia in Muhammad's Mosque No. 12's newly established

gration is hypocritical and is made by those who are trying to deceive the black peoples into believing that their 400-year-old open enemies of freedom, justice and equality are, all of a sudden, their "friends." Furthermore, we believe that such deception is intended to prevent black people from realizing that the time in history has arrived for the separation from the whites of this nation.

If the white people are truthful about their professed friendship toward the so-called Negro, they can prove it by dividing up America with their slaves.

We do not believe that America will ever be able to furnish enough jobs for her own millions of unemployed, in addition to jobs for the 20,000,000 black people as well.

10. WE BELIEVE that we who declared ourselves to be righteous Muslims, should not participate in wars which takes the lives of humans. We do not believe this nation should force us to take part in such wars, for we have nothing to gain from it unless America agrees to give us the necessary territory wherein we may have something to fight for.

11. WE BELIEVE our women should be respected and protected as the women of other nationalities are respected and protected.

12. WE BELIEVE that Allah (God) appeared in the Person of Master W. Fard Muhammad, July, 1930; the long-awaited "Messiah" of the Christians and the "Mahdi" of the Muslims.

We believe further and lastly that Allah is God and besides HIM there is no God and He will bring about a universal government of peace wherein we all can live in peace together.

The Messenger of Allah Presents

—The Muslim Program—

What the Muslims Want

This is the question asked most frequently by both the whites and the blacks. The answers to this question I shall state as simply as possible.

1. We want freedom. We want a full and complete freedom.

2. We want justice. Equal justice under the law. We want justice applied equally to all, regardless of creed or class or color.

3. We want equality of opportunity. We want equal membership in society with the best in civilized society.

4. We want our people in America whose parents or grandparents were descendants from slaves, to be allowed to establish a separate state or territory of their own—either on this continent or elsewhere. We believe that our former slave masters are obligated to provide such land and that the area must be fertile and mineral rich. We believe that our former slave masters are obligated to maintain and supply our needs in this separate territory for the next 20 to 25 years — until we are able to produce and supply our own needs.

Since we cannot get along with them in peace and equality, after giving them 400 years of our sweat and blood and receiving in return some of the worst treatment human beings have ever experienced, we believe our contributions to this land and the suffering forced upon us by white America, justifies our demand for complete separation in a state or territory of our own.

5. We want freedom for all Believers of Islam now held in federal prisons. We want freedom for all black men and women now under death sentence in innumerable prisons in the North as well as the South.

We want every black man and woman to have the freedom to accept or reject being separated from the slave master's children and establish a land of their own.

We know that the above plan for the solution of the black and white conflict is the best and only answer to the problem between two people.

6. We want an immediate end to the police brutality and mob attacks against the so-called Negro throughout the United States.

We believe that the Federal government should intercede to see that black men and women tried in white courts receive justice in accordance with the laws of the land — or allow us to build a new nation for ourselves, dedicated to justice, freedom and liberty.

7. As long as we are not allowed to establish a state or territory of our own, we demand not only equal justice under the laws of the United States, but equal employment opportunities—NOW!

We do not believe that after 400 years of free or nearly free labor, sweat and blood, which has helped America become rich and powerful, that so many thousands of black people should have to subsist on relief, charity or live in poor houses.

8. We want the government of the United States to exempt our people from ALL taxation as long as we are deprived of equal justice under the laws of the land.

9. We want equal education — but separate schools up to 16 for boys and 18 for girls on the condition that the girls be sent to women's colleges and universities. We want all black children educated, taught and trained by their own teachers.

Under such schooling system we believe we will make a better nation of people. The United States government should provide, free, all necessary text books and equipment, schools and college buildings. cency and self respect.

10. We believe that intermarriage or race mixing should be prohibited. We want the religion of Islam taught without hinderance or suppression.

These are some of the things that we, the Muslims, want for our people in North America.

What the Muslims Believe

1. WE BELIEVE in the One God Whose proper Name is Allah.

2. WE BELIEVE in the Holy Qur'an and in the Scriptures of all the Prophets of God.

3. WE BELIEVE in the truth of the Bible, but we believe that it has been tampered with and must be reinterpreted so that mankind will not be snared by the falsehoods that have been added to it.

4. WE BELIEVE in Allah's Prophets and the Scriptures they brought to the people.

5. WE BELIEVE in the resurrection of the dead—not in physical resurrection—but in mental resurrection. We believe that the so-called Negroes are most in need of mental resurrection; therefore, they will be resurrected first.

Furthermore, we believe we are the people of God's choice, as it has been written, that God would choose the rejected and the despised. We can find no other persons fitting this description in these last days more than the so-called Negroes in America. We believe in the resurrection of the righteous.

6. WE BELIEVE in the judgement; we believe this first judgement will take place, as God revealed, in America.

7. WE BELIEVE this is the time in history for the separation of the so-called Negroes and the so-called white Americans. We believe the black man should be freed in name as well as in fact. By this we mean that he should be freed from the names imposed upon him by his former slave masters. Names which identified him as being the slave master's slave. We believe that if we are free indeed, we should go in our own people's names — the black peoples of the earth.

8. WE BELIEVE in justice for all, whether in God or not; we believe as others, that we are due equal justice as human beings. We believe in equality—as a nation—of equals. We do not believe that we are equal with our slave masters in the status of "freed slaves."

We recognize and respect American citizens as independent peoples and we respect their laws which govern this nation.

9. WE BELIEVE that the offer of inte-
